B. c, (Mar), by Malibu Moon - Mambo Bell, by Kingmambo. Trainer Gyarmati Leah. Bred by Estate of Edward P Evans (Va).

NOBLE MOON brushed with SCOTLAND while getting carried in slightly as well leaving the starting gate, went on to secure a forward position, was rated in the two path while stalking the leader, moved by and tucked along the rail coming to the end of the backstretch, came under assault during the later stages of the run around the far turn and was soon let out in response, still felt endangered by pair, one along the inside and the other to the outside with an eighth to go, showed good determination to rebuff each of them and kick clear. CLASSIC GIACNROLL strung out four wide on the opening bend, travelled in the three path on the subsequent one, challenged in earnest outside a pair of opponents coming to the quarter pole, kept up the pursuit with vigor for an additional furlong, got shaken off, but continued onward willingly to secure second. SCOTLAND carried in a bit after a troubled beginning by PIN AND WIN, made light contact with the top one, underwent a ground-saving journey, rated unkindly, fighting with force on the bit around the first turn, settled down afterwards, launched a rail run from upper to midstretch, flattened out late. MATUSZAK got taken hold after taking an awkward initial step at the start, quickly tucked along the rail and rode it until the top of the far turn, slipped outward to elude the fading former pacesetter, swung four wide into the stretch, shielded outward several more paths reacting to LAWMAKER, went on to mainly improve position belatedly. LAWMAKER off the inside, drifted into the six path during the opening phases of the stretch run, made no impact. MENTAL ICEBERG three wide on both turns, was already under a drive spinning into the stretch, came up empty. MASTER LIGHTNING pressed the issue from between rivals for most of the way on the second bend, gave way. PIN AND WIN ducked in sharply after stumbling at the start, showed the way from the inside for nearly a half, retreated after getting displaced by the winner, turned for home with the pilot applying a protective hold and was eased.
